Partners in delivering a PET service: Producing the radiopharmaceuticals

Greg Santamaria
CEO, Cyclotek Pty Ltd

A founding partner in the establishment of Cyclotek's business case to support multiple PET Imaging Facilities across Australia, Greg Santamaria is the CEO of the Cyclotek group.

An accountant by trade with 25 years experience in business advisory, management and tax across diverse industries, Greg holds directorships within the Cyclotek group, ANSTO Nuclear Medicine Pty Ltd (ANM), Amaranth Foundation (Mental Wellbeing), Gateway Productions (Theatre Productions) and finance / wholesale businesses.

Cyclotek was born from the inspiration, passion, knowledge and drive of Prof. Rodney Hick and his incredible ability to impart that on others, and is Greg's appreciated mentor.

Mark Frazzetto
Quality Assurance Manager, Cyclotek Pty Ltd

Mark graduated from Swinburne University in 2003 with a Bachelor of Applied Science (honours) in Biochemistry/Chemistry and went on to complete a PhD in Biochemistry in 2007. Mark has predominantly held research positions at Melbourne-based Biotechnology companies, focusing on developing novel therapeutic medicines for indications such as Diabetes, Cancer, Vascular and Infectious diseases.

Mark transferred out of research and into drug development focusing on aspects involved in the progression of novel medicines through clinical and nonclinical drug safety. At Cyclotek, Mark is working on Quality Control and Quality Assurance systems to ensure activities comply with relevant GMP requirements and that products are released in compliance with group standards, regulatory requirements and technical terms of supply. Mark is also responsible for the development and delivery of Cyclotek's Pharmacovigilance Program.
